ONE YEAR AT ONE SAFE PLACE HOUSTON

So Much to Celebrate!

One year ago, the Houston Area Women's Center opened One Safe Place Houston (OSPH) to expand housing availability, integrate services under one roof, and reduce barriers to long-term stability and safety.

OSPH reimagines what survivor support looks like.

With 135 emergency and transitional housing units, we tripled our housing capacity, and:

- Began operating from a disclosed location for the first time
- Brought together residential and non-residential services on one campus, including:
  - Counseling
  - Childcare
  - A Houston ISD elementary school
  - Legal advocacy
  - Economic empowerment

Thank you for being part of our community. Your generosity makes this work possible, and your belief in our mission changes lives.

"One Safe Place Houston isn't just a building. It's a promise that every survivor who walks through our doors will be met with safety, dignity, and hope. I see that promise alive every single day at One Safe Place Houston, woven into everything happening around me. I see a team of remarkable people who show up daily to counsel, advocate, teach, and care—not because it's easy, but because it matters. And I see the courage of survivors—women, men and children—who are choosing to rebuild, heal, and begin again. One Safe Place Houston exists because our community believed it should. Keeping that promise requires that same belief from every one of us."
